

AGCO Spa Breganze 2022

WELCOME TO BREGANZE

OUR VISION

Trusted partner or industry-leading, smart farming solutions

OUR MISSION

Profitable growth through superior customer service, innovation, quality and commitment

OUR PURPOSE

Farmer-focused solutions to sustainably feed our world

AGCO

MILESTONES

1990

AGCO was formed in the management buyout of Deutz-Allis from KHD and began manufacturing and distributing farm equipment under the AGCO® Allis and Gleaner® brand names

1992

AGCO provided an initial public offering of one-half of its stock and became listed on NASDAQ. Subsequently, it became listed on the NYSE under the symbol "AG" in 1994

1994

AGCO acquired Massey Ferguson

1997

AGCO acquired Fendt GmbH

1999

AGCO announced the creation of AGCO FINANCE, a new and dedicated financing organization

2000

AGCO completed the purchase of Hay and Forage Industries in Hesston, Kansas

2004

Valtra was acquired by AGCO

2008

SISU Diesel was rebranded AGCO SISU POWER

2009

AGCO announced plans to open two manufacturing sites in China

2011

In March AGCO acquired 100% of Laverda S.p.A after the 2007 joint venture

GSI Holding Corp. (GSI), a leading global manufacturer of grain storage and protein production systems, was acquired by AGCO in late 2011

2014

AGCO acquired the total of Santal Equipamentos

2016

AGCO acquired Cimbria Holdings Limited, a leading global manufacturer of equipment used for seed processing and post-harvest grain handling

AGCO agreed a partnership with Aglytix and Farmobile

2017

AGCO completed the acquisition of the Forage Division of Lely Group, a leading manufacturer of balers and loader wagons in Europe, to further strengthen AGCO's full line product offering.

2018

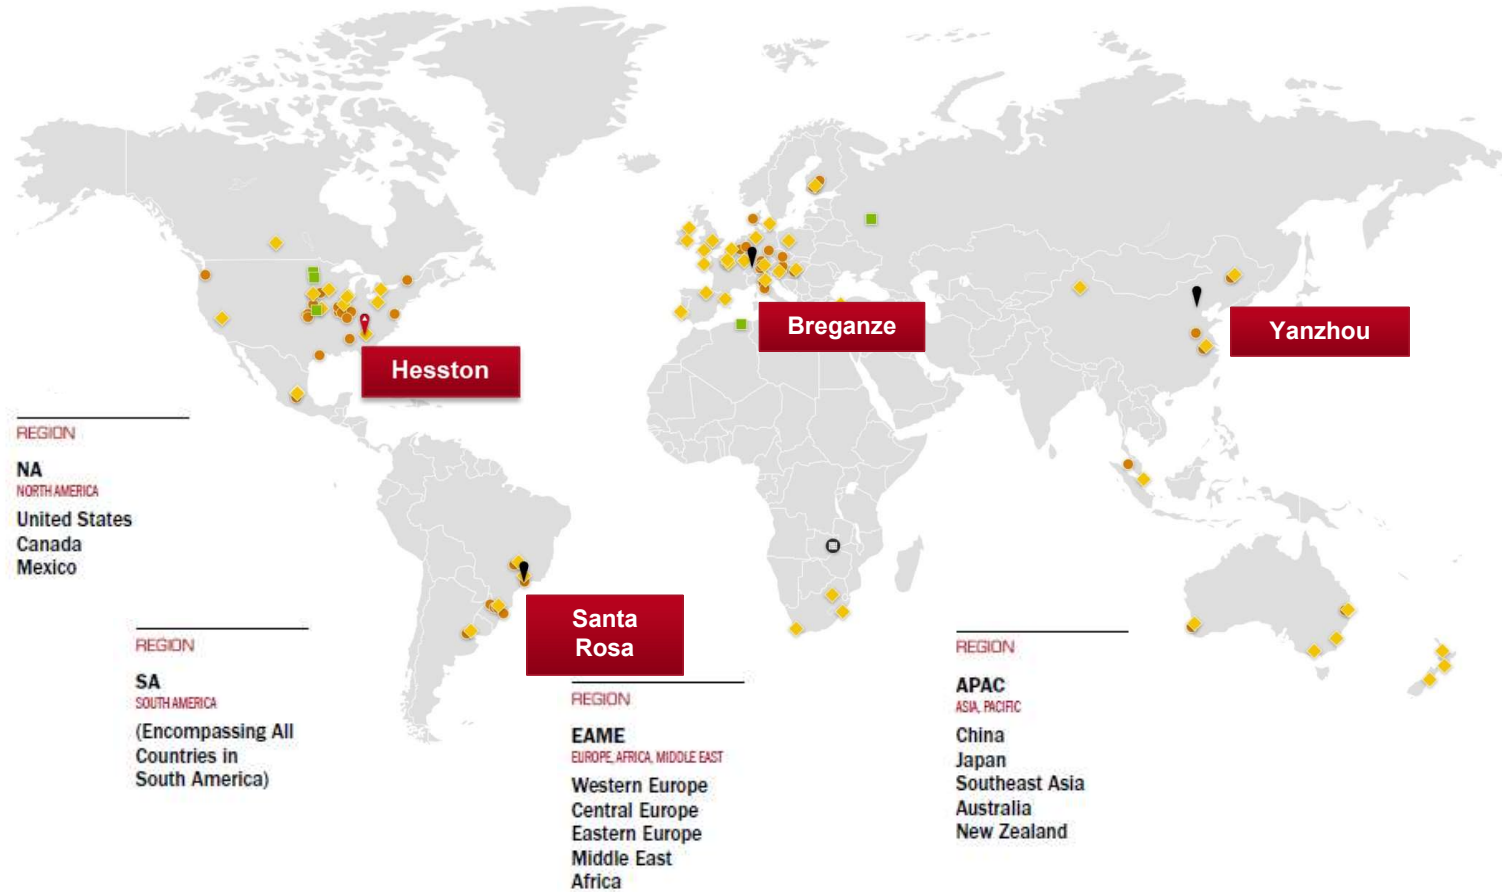

AGCO opened a new plant in Queretaro, Mexico, to help expand operations in Mexico and Latin America. AGCO is committed to provide agricultural integral solutions and services for customers and distributors in Mexico and Latin America, increasing the productivity, competitiveness and sustainability of the sector throughout these investments.

AGCO

GLOBAL PRESENCE

140 Countries
4 Regions
Worldwide connections

-  Global Headquarters
-  Regional Headquarters
-  Manufacturing/Assembly
-  Joint Venture Manufacturing/Assembly
-  Parts Distribution
-  Future Farm

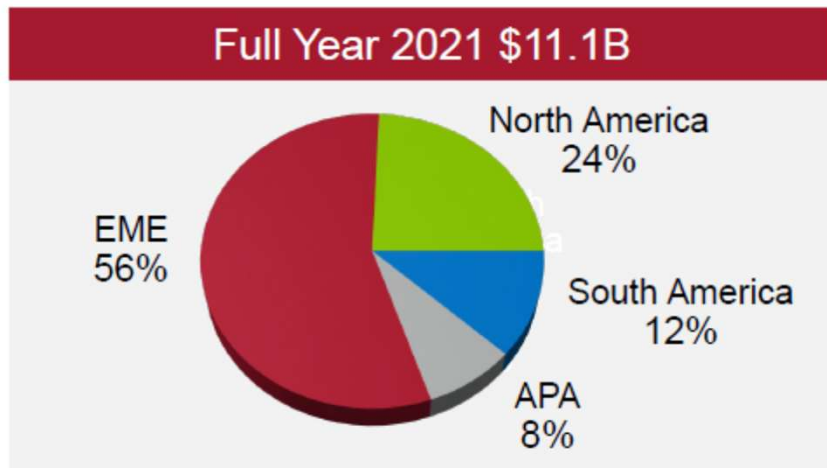

AGCO

BY THE NUMBERS

GLOBAL 2021 NET SALES

Total: $11,1B

We have an established presence throughout the world's agricultural growing regions.

AGCO 2021 net sales (+21,7% FY 2020) reflect improved sales volumes, positive pricing as well as acquisition and foreign exchange impacts.

LEVERAGING A GLOBAL PRESENCE

CORE BRANDS DISTRIBUTED

Fendt, GSI, Massey Ferguson, Valtra

MAIN CROPS

Wheat, barley, corn, oil seeds, dairy and livestock

AGCO BREGANZE

PLANT HISTORY

1873

Pietro Laverda established the "Ditta Pietro Laverda", a craftsman's workshop

1956

Laverda designed and built the first Italian self-propelled combine harvester, the M 60 model

1971

Production of the M 100 AL began

1979

The company moved to the Headquarters in via F. Laverda

2004

The Breganze Plant had an OEM agreement with AGCO for supplying with Fendt and Massey Ferguson combines

2007

AGCO acquired 50 percent ownership of Laverda S.p.A

2011

AGCO acquired the remaining 50 percent stake in Laverda S.p.A from the Italian ARGO Group

AGCO BREGANZE

THE EMPLOYER OF CHOICE

With more than 730 employees,
AGCO Breganze is
the first employer in the area
together with Diesel

65M euro investments since 2012
and more than 8M every year

400 suppliers on a global level

2.000 visitors per year

International exhibitions

Product launch events

International trainings

Digital Innovation

FACTS&FIGURES

	AGCO S.p.A.	AGCO ITALIA	Total
Managers	10	5	15
Salaried	172	73	245
Hourly	446	18	464
Total	628	96	724

AGCO BREGANZE HEADQUARTERS

Total area: 25 hectared

Covered surface: almost 9 hectares

New Spare Parts Warehouse

New Logistic Center

New Assembly line: 310 m long

THANK YOU

www.AGCOcorp.com
www.harvestingbreganze.com

STAY CONNECTED

