About ALDA*

ALDA - European Association for Local Democracy, is a French-registered association dedicated to the promotion of good local governance and citizen participation at local level in the European Union, its neighbourhood and beyond.

ALDA is a global alliance of associations, civil society organisations and local governments supporting local democracy and active citizen engagement.

ALDA works with members and partners to develop projects that support its mission to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals and the 2030 Agenda.

During its 20 years of activity ALDA has developed more than 450 projects and reached almost 25 million citizens.

Today, ALDA is a wide and consolidated network with more than 350 members from 45 countries, 16 Local Democracy Agencies (LDAs) and 3 Operating Partners (Ops).

In 2017 ALDA launched ALDA+, the benefit corporation owned by ALDA and dedicated to the provision of trainings, ad hoc consultancies and specialised services in all the fields where ALDA has been operating for more than 20 years. Indeed, ALDA+ represents the capitalisation of the experience of ALDA in the fields of local democracy, participatory processes and project-cycle management.

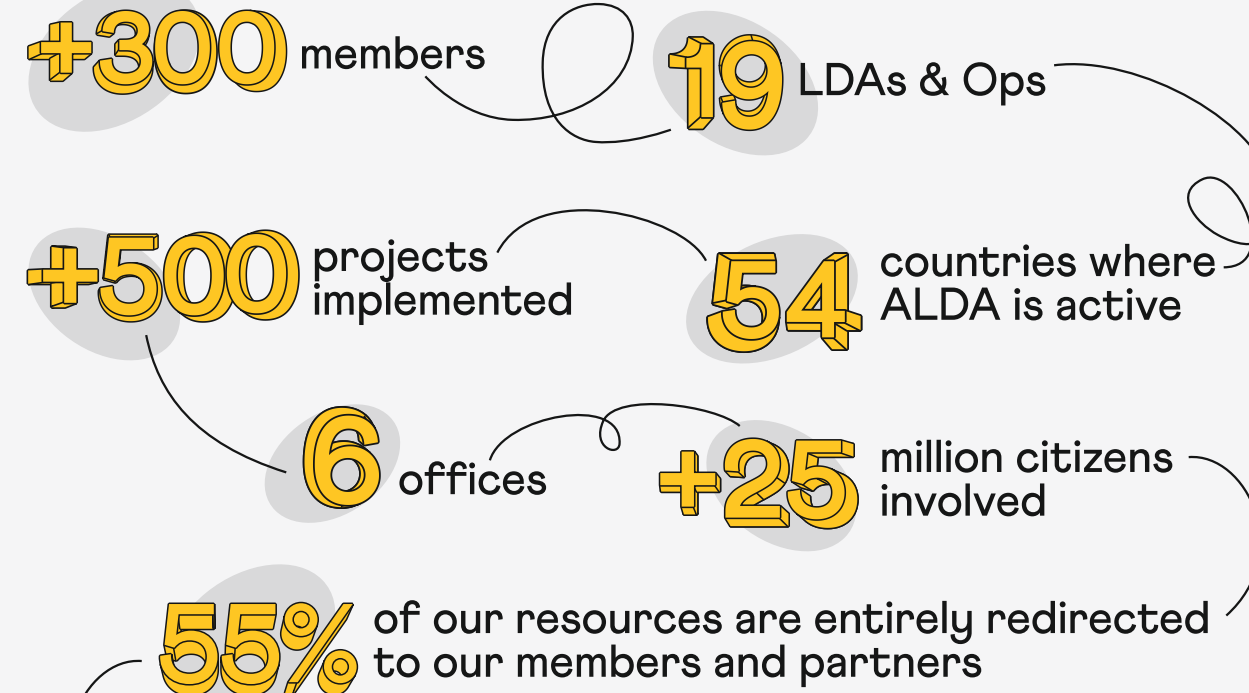

“ Our mission is to support quality cooperation between citizens, local governments and civil society organisations, convinced that vital local democracy is a prerequisite for universal progress in the society! ”

Oriano Otočan, President of ALDA

*What we do

To promote good governance and citizen participation at local level across Europe and beyond, ALDA carries out a wide range of actions supporting local, national and international actors in achieving their objectives in the field of European integration, decentralisation, human rights, social inclusion, sustainable development, civic initiatives and much more.

ALDA works with a multistakeholder approach looking at a wide spectrum of potential resources in local communities. ALDA represents a wide network of citizens and local authorities fully committed to support local democracy and empowerment of local communities through citizen participation, in Europe and beyond.

Our Priorities*

Advocacy

Making citizens' voice heard in Europe and all over the globe, sharing best practices and shaping the future with a bottom-up approach: this and much more is what ALDA is standing for.

ALDA, as a Civil Society Organisation, is engaged with members and partners to make Europe more citizens' oriented, more inclusive, participative, and sustainable.

A better World one by one

ALDA is actively part of the global plan for the Sustainable Development Goals' (SDGs) achievements also contributing to policy processes targeting different EU institutions and citizens, advocating together towards the implementation of the Agenda 2030.

Local Democracy in the World

ALDA works to support resilient communities, connect stakeholders and enhance the functioning of local institutions thus promoting local democracy and citizens' engagement all over the globe.
